OCTOBER 2018

Accuser

We lament the hearing of Judge Kavanaugh. He has been accused of wrong doing. We lament the mistreatment of others. Many have stood and pronounced him guilty, even before proven guilty, as many have accused Mrs. Ford with false accusation. It's not my point to accuse or defend, but it is my desire for us to understand what does take place in our day and what will happen in the future.

Satan is an accuser of the brethren. He accused God of being benevolent to Job. He told God that if He would take away His safe enclosure of Job, leaving him vulnerable to the skin of his life, Job would fail to fulfill his faithfulness to God. Satan accused. He lifted an accusatory finger and pointed to God and said that Job is only faithful because of His benevolent blessings. Satan is an accuser to God of each of us. And what he finds many times, sadly, is our unfaithfulness.

Job also was approached by Satan. He was prompted to accuse God of wrong doing. He wanted and prompted Job to curse God. But Job did not. Job remained faithful in his love for God even though he did not understand all that God was doing. But understand this, God is faithful and He will bring down Satan at His time. One day the accuser will be brought down to the pits of hell.

May we each know that one day all wrongs will be approached. Either at the cross or at the Great White Throne of Judgment all wrongs and lies will be brought forth. If people will fall before the cross of Christ and admit wrongdoing then all sins will be forgiven. Can consequences continue? Yes, but eternity matters most over temporal and short years of life. To stand before God is to stand before the final court is a sobering matter. We encourage all to confess sin and by faith trust in Christ's work of settling the debt.

May we listen to the Spirit of God and ask God for forgiveness and may we as God's people realize that God is faithful and He can be counted upon. One day in glory all will, His children, walk under the same step of God reflecting His glory in our lives. Everything will be clear and there will be none to accuse.

Fall is in the air and the fall of Satan is drawing nigh. All thoughts of evil and malicious overnight thinking will be revealed for what it is...wrong and malevolent. We look forward to the summer of God's rising with healing in His wings, and to the righteousness that will cover the world.

Until He Comes Again may we look forward,

Pastor Don
