A New Year Without Fear

Dear KMBC and Friends,

A new year, a new surrender, new friends, new adventures, and even new difficulties all make for a year planned by God. He has already written down our life for this new year. Let's walk in Him and with Him.

If you are not saved, your first step to this new year must be to receive the life of Christ within you. It doesn't matter how young or old you are — if you are reading this, you can be saved.

Billy Graham once said, "The greatest fears are those fears of death, judgment, and eternity." These fears are removed by the death of Christ to overcome death by His death. He died the death you cannot avoid so that you can live the life you cannot live. If you're going to face this year with steadfast resolve, then you must find contentment, companionship, and confidence in Christ.

Don't allow worry to rule your life. Worry is a form of atheism — acting as if God doesn't exist. Friend, this coming year may be difficult for you, but you can stand upon the promises of the Word of God.

We don't know what the coming of the new year will bring in the way of sickness, heartache, or trouble, but we do know that we can boldly say, "The Lord will be my helper. I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

Jesus may come — we may go up. We may die — we'll go down and then go up and at any rate we are going on. Allow this new year be the beginning of a brand new life, the first day of your eternal life.

I Love you in the love of the Lord,

Pastor Don
