A Love Worth Sharing

Dear KMBC,

I desire for you to know that your ministry of love never goes unmentioned in Heaven. The Lord knows your work and labor of love. He sees all that is done in His name for His sake. Everything that He directs that you allow is forever written in God's Book of Remembrance.

Think about what takes place every week out of our church fellowship. We preach and teach God's Word. It's recorded and seen by many on our YouTube channel and Facebook page. People from Florida, Tennessee, and on different islands view the service and the program. Even more importantly is your witness to your family, friends, and coworkers. Your individual prayers and love are true actions of God in you. Your attendance to the Word is worth more than what you could even imagine when it comes to hearing the Word of God.

We also have the opportunity because of you to enable our church to broadcast on two radio stations. There are people who come up to me and tell me of listening to the broadcast. I thank God that we can expand the message through radio. It reaches our people and the people around Alamance County and other counties.

Children's ministry, youth ministry, young adult ministry, adult ministry takes place every week through in-person gatherings and outside of the church through Discipleship Groups. The prayer ministry is ongoing during the day hours and also at appointed times.

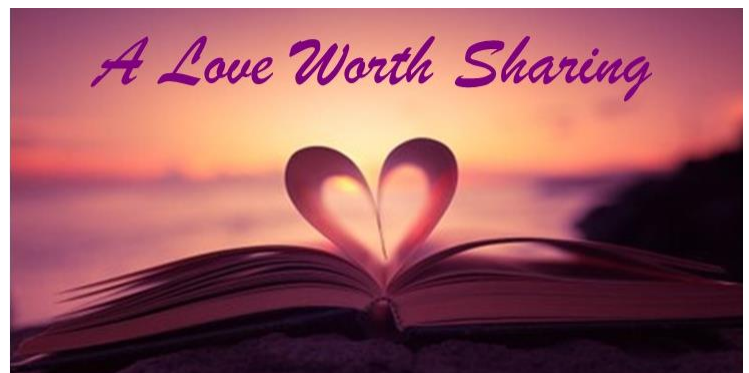

If God be God and calls us to allow Him to move, live, and have our being in Him then it is a must to do so. Look at every obstacle in your life as an opportunity for God to work. He draws you to prayer through your adversity. How will you know that He answers prayer if we do not pray through the difficulties?

This is the month of Love. May it be the month of a Love Worth Sharing! Your giving out of a joyful heart, a cheerful heart is of utmost pleasure to God. Teach yourself the joy of giving. Let God teach you how to teach your children. It is imperative to allow Him to supply you in your need even for others.

Pray for God's will in your life this month and for your church.

I love you in the Lord Jesus,

Pastor Don
