Asbury Hughes Auditorium Revival

KMBC and Friends,

I have been asked about the Asbury meeting taking place in Wilmore, Kentucky. I don't know if I really have a response to be given but because of the number of people asking I would like to respond.

Just as an oiled rag left in a dark closet which can cause spontaneous combustion, it's rare, but it can start a tremendous fire. It was "business as usual" at a small-town chapel in Wilmore, KY. A young man preaching to a younger man confessing sin, and at the end of the day a chapel filled with students worshipping God and repenting of their sins, it seems as if these young students desire more.

Firsthand eyewitnesses, hundreds of firsthand reports, the meeting is continuing on for over two weeks. There seems to be a lot about it that seems real and I'm sure some of it is emotional and out-of-balance. We saw a remarkable thing happen at the Burlington Tent Revival. Much was real, souls were saved, and some "converts" were emotional and have not continued.

The reports say "There are no stars, not a lot of talent showcased and the people who attend the worship do not want to leave." People are flocking there because they desire more. We know there's something missing in our orthodox all-too-manageable faith. We have placed God in our "box" and we are very opinionated and we are proud of it.

God responds to those who "Hunger for righteousness." God took hold of Paul on the Damascus Road and Paul wanted to take hold of all God had for him (Philippians 3:13-14). Paul strained ahead for what lay ahead. I pressed forward.

The church has become mediocre and stalled. God isn't in more programs, personalities, parties, He desires people who have open hearts and empty hands who seek Him with all they are in Him.

Years ago, I would take our newborn baby daughters, snuggle them inside of a soft throw, and hold them as they slept. Their hearts were beating, I felt and heard their breath, and their soundtrack was the beating of their father's heart.

Can we say, "God, let that be me. So close to you that I can hear Your heart. Hear my breath, my heart, let it beat for Thee."

Pastor Don
