Twilight's Last Gleaming

The only way to change this nation is by changing individuals. The only to introduce people to Jesus is by His people loving Him. The only method for deeper love is by reading His Word. The Bible is God's continual Word to Us. We are to meditate upon Him by having His Scripture revealed to us by His Spirit.

We are at the beginning of the end. America's coming collapse is ahead. Like lemmings that walk into the sea and many die, America and the nations are walking into Armageddon.

The bad news is that America's demise is inevitable. That's not fatalistic, or unpatriotic, but it is a biblical statement. We really believe that the tenacity and resiliency of the American spirit will ultimately triumph over any adversity we encounter. Yet a simple reading of the Bible tells us that America's days are numbered because this planet's days are numbered. "The world is passing away, and also its ungodly desires; but the one who does the will of God lives forever" (I John 2:17).

Can we postpone our nation's collapse? We can postpone it. We are the salt of the earth and the light of the world with Christ in us. We are not here to preserve the way of life but to share the gospel with as many as we can before America is swept away by God's judgment.

If God's people would repent of their sins and fall in love in Jesus, maybe, just possibly, God would grant another awakening. He did it through Jonah for Ninevah and gave them judgment relief for a time.

Please listen to your pastor! Fall in love with Jesus all over again. Repent of not loving Him and His church with your attendance, prayers, giving, and participating!

I love you too much to not to warn of the coming day of judgment for a world who has fled from the mercy and grace of God.
